

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. PREFACE.

THE Sixth Volume of the Lineage Book comprises the National Numbers 5001-6000, members entering the Society in the year 1894. This publication is becoming better understood, better appreciated by the Society and more widely known throughout the country. It has been fully demonstrated that the satisfactory editing of these records require not only interest in the subject, but untiring research, and this volume shows great advancement. The value of the work increases with its progress and its future now seems assured.

It is beyond question the duty of the Daughters of the American Revolution to cherish this publication, for after two years close application I feel convinced that these gathered facts, condensed as they are, will be a source of inspiration to patriotic endeavor through coming generations.

MRS. HARRIET GLASCOCK MAYS BALL. 5001

Born in Alabama.

Wife of Maj. George Claiborne Ball.

Descendant of Samuel Mays and of Brig. Gen. Thomas Glascock, of Georgia.

Daughter of Judge Thomas Sumter Mays and Eliza A. Glascock, his wife.

Granddaughter of Gen. John Glascock and Betsey Simkins, his wife; and of Samuel Mays.

Gr.-granddaughter of Thomas Glascock and Mary Bacon, his wife.

Thomas Glascock served with the Georgia troops and after Count Pulaski was wounded and captured, he with great risk and gallantry rescued the dying officer from the enemy. His entire career was distinguished by brilliant adventures until his name became a synonym for courage.

Samuel Mays when sixteen was a brave soldier in three engagements with the South Carolina troops.

MRS. CORNELIA ISABEL DEAN MORRILL. 5002

Born in Massachusetts.

Wife of Richard Morrill.

Descendant of Capt. Daniel Hawkins, of Winchester, N. H.

NOTE.—The number at the end of the name represents the National Number of the Member of the Society.

Daughter of George Crossman Dean and Dolly Bennett, his wife.
Granddaughter of Abiathar Dean and Freelove Hawkins, his wife.
Gr.-granddaughter of Daniel Hawkins and Thankful Bennett, his wife.

Daniel Hawkins was captain in a regiment of militia under command of Col. Bedell.

MRS. HARRIET PALMER CRABBE.

5003

MISS ELIZABETH BRYANT JOHNSTON.

5093

Born in Kentucky.

Descendant of Rev. Lewis Craig, Tolliver Craig, Polly Hawkins Craig, Capt. James Pattie, Ann Sanders and Rev. James Johnston.

Daughter of Dr. William Bryant Johnston and Asenath Craig, his wife.

Granddaughter of John Craig and Katharine Pattie, his wife; James Johnston and Margaret Keith, his wife.

Gr.-granddaughter of Lewis Craig and Elizabeth Sanders, his wife; James Pattie and Ann Sanders, his wife.

Gr.-gr.-granddaughter of Tolliver Craig and Polly Hawkins, his wife.

Lewis Craig was a Baptist minister who suffered much for liberty of conscience in Virginia. Washington said they were the "Firm friends of civil liberty and the persevering promoters of our glorious revolution." In 1781 he led his congregation of over two hundred through the wilderness to Kentucky and it is known as "The Traveling Church."

Tolliver Craig was a soldier in the Virginia militia and a defender of Bryant's Station, when attacked by British under Caldwell, and Indians led by the infamous Simon Girty.

Polly Hawkins Craig was the oldest of the twenty women at Bryant's Station, August 15, 1782, who knowing that the Indians were in ambush near the spring, brought the water which made the defense of that post possible.

Ann Sanders carried water, moulded bullets and nursed the wounded at Bryant's Station. The Lexington Chapter, D. A. R., have immortalized these heroines by a memorial wall around the historic spring.

James Pattie was an officer in the Virginia militia, who emigrated to Kentucky in 1782. He was with the reinforcements that reached Blue Licks after the battle, but followed the victorious enemy across the Ohio.

James Johnston, convinced of the righteousness of the cause of the Colonies, resigned his commission as lieutenant in the British Army and served as chaplain of Virginia militia.
